

Affine arithmetic in generalized quadrangles

Mark A. Miller, Marietta College

It is known that normal ovoids and spreads in generalized quadrangles correspond to affine planes. We use this correspondence to develop an arithmetic of points/lines within the ovoids/spreads. Furthermore we consider the result of expanding the arithmetic to the entire point and line sets.