

Diversity Policy for Recruitment

The Doctoral Program in Counselor Education is committed to recruiting a diverse student body representing a wide array of cultures, geographical regions, and socioeconomic backgrounds. The unique experiences and perspectives students bring to the doctoral program present possibilities for learning not only for individual students but also for their peers and the masters students with whom they work. By accepting the invitation to enter the Doctoral Program in Counselor Education, students commit to the ongoing development of their understanding of their own prejudices and preconceptions and developing their comprehension of the perspectives and lived experiences of diverse human beings. Students also accept the challenge to develop their acceptance of others who are different and to learn to communicate more effectively with diverse human beings.
