

JAMES O. EASTLAND COLLECTION
FILE SERIES 1: PERSONAL/POLITICAL
SUBSERIES 9: EXECUTIVE SECRETARY/VIRGINIA SIMMERMAN

At one time, Virginia Simmerman was a secretary in U.S. Senator Theodore G. Bilbo's office. She then briefly worked at the War Department before taking a position as Eastland's secretary in 1943. Simmerman remained with the senator until 1951. Most of the correspondence is personal in nature, with some requests for assistance with the government or discussions of Mississippi politics. Of particular note is one folder devoted to the christening of the steamship "Victory Pontotoc" in January 1945 at the Bethlehem-Fairfield Shipyard in Baltimore, Maryland. A native of Pontotoc, Simmerman was chosen as the "Sponsor" for the occasion and thus assisted with the arrangements for the christening ceremony.
