COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use”, that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of that order would involve violation of copyright law.

I agree that this copy will be used for private study, scholarship or research. I understand that copyright is not conveyed with this copy. I will not quote from, publish, reproduce, or display any material in this copy in whole or in part without written permission from the copyright holder and the Department of Archives and Special Collections. This copy will not be given to other institutions or sold.

Citations to this copy must identify the location of the original as Archives and Special Collections, J. D. Williams Library, University of Mississippi.

Your signature indicates that you have read, do understand and will abide by the restrictions cited above.
