

Example LCSH Entry

Philosophy, Moral USE Ethics	Improper heading Use instead Equivalence relationship - USE references made from an unauthorized or unpreferred term
<hr/>
Ethics (May Subd Geog)	Proper Heading, may subdivide geographically. For example: Ethics--United States.
[BJ]	Suggested call number - about 36% of entries have this
UF Deontology Ethics, Primitive [Former Heading] Ethology Moral philosophy Morality Morals Philosophy, Moral Science, Moral	Used for, lists the unauthorized or unpreferred terms under the authorised/preferred one also equivalence relationship
BT Philosophy	Broader topic - heirarchical relationship. Linked to other headings by cross-referencing
RT Values	Related topic - associative relationship Joins two headings that are linked by something other than hierarchy
SA subdivision Ethics under names of individual persons and legislative bodies; and subdivision Moral and ethical aspects under non-religious or non-ethical topics	See also - general reference to an entire group of headings or subdivisions, when it would be impractical to list them all For example: United States. Congress--Ethics
NT Applied ethics Appropriateness (Ethics) Art and morals /-	Narrower topic - heirarchical relationship. Linked to other headings by cross-referencing

Vocation
Will Work ethic
— Biblical teaching	Improper subdivision
USE Ethics in the Bible	Use instead
— Societies, etc.	Proper subdivision

Vocation	Proper Heading
Here are entered works dealing with the occupation of an individual in the sense of employment to which he is destined by nature, or called, as it were, by some higher power.	Scope note "provided when needed to ensure consistency of subject usage by specifying the range of subject usage by specifying the range of subject matter to which a heading is applied in the Library's catalog, by drawing necessary distinctions between related headings, or by stating which of several meanings of a heading is the one to which its use in the Library's catalog is limited."
UF Calling	Use for