Football Weekend

Handout

1. Proper Landscape Department issued uniforms are to be worn during working hours.
2. Prompt attendance is expected for each game. Due to the nature and size of the clean up all employees are expected to work their shift.
3. There are over 1000 temporary signs, 3 miles of rope and stakes, 500 trash cans put out for each home football game. There is between 200 to 400 cubic yards of waste picked up and removed from the Grove and Circle each game.
4. Creating the most beautiful campus in America requires good planning and organization. Each person has a vital role in getting prepared. You will be getting the campus ready for football and cleaning up afterwards and putting the campus back to normal. Many hours of work are spent ordering supplies, organizing materials to make the weekend successful for our fans and staff. You will have a role in making the weekend successful.
5. Things change. Problems occur. Having the attitude to adapt to change and solve problems is expected. Being adaptable is important to meet the challenges you will face. Your success depends on adapting to the challenges. You may start out doing one thing, but get moved to do another task before you finish the first. This is one example of being adaptable. Understanding and displaying a, “Whatever it takes to get it done,” attitude shows your maturity and ability to handle your role.
6. Generally speaking, each person on the crew will be involved in setting up the campus the week prior to the game. Football set up and clean up is a team effort. Days before the game, crews will be setting up trash cans, putting up stakes/rope, signs, painting lines, treating fire ants, cleaning and many other task. Your role may change from time to time.
7. Currently the work shift on the weekend are Saturday morning, Saturday night and Sunday morning. Times and crew personal will vary depending on what is needed to make the football weekend successful. Each person is expected to work one of these shifts.
8. Being absent produces a hardship on fellow workers and delays important dead lines to get the campus back to normal. Our department has one of the best reputations for cleaning up the campus in record time and to the 5 star standard. Many visitors, fans and Ole Miss alumni comment about what an amazing job our team does and how fast it all happens.
9. In the event of an accident notify your supervisor right away.
10. Football weekend is a busy time, but deciding in advance to have a great attitude will make the time go by quickly and you’ll have a lot fun. It is important for you to remember you are apart of elite team that is doing great things.
