Please answer the next two questions on a separate sheet of paper (or electronic attachment) listing activities and employment during or since completion of your undergraduate education. You may also submit (or electronically attach) a resume.

11. Please list any: (A) academic and non-academic honors and awards received, including fellowships, prizes, and memberships in honor societies; (B) hobbies or special areas of interest or academic pursuits; (C) significant extracurricular activities; and (D) care of dependents (children/and or adults). It is helpful if you provide the relevant dates along with some indication of the extent of your involvement.

12. Please list past full-time or significant part-time employment, paid or unpaid, beginning with your most recent. Please include the name and location of your employer, your job title, and the dates you held the position, along with any other information you think will be useful. If it has been more than three months since you attended an educational institution, please be sure to let us know what you are doing now.

PERSONAL STATEMENT:

The personal statement provides you with an opportunity to point out noteworthy academic achievements, extracurricular activities, and business or civic experiences. The statement also enables you to demonstrate the ways in which you can contribute your talents and experiences to the School of Law. Successful applicants have also elaborated on meaningful personal and intellectual interests, and challenges or disadvantages met and overcome. If applying electronically, use an electronic attachment.

Note: Applicants are encouraged to contact appropriate bar admissions agency to determine if prior criminal charges or convictions may impede bar admissions.

I certify that the information provided by me in this application is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand that falsifications, misrepresentations, or omissions on the application may be grounds for denial, or, if I am accepted, for suspension or dismissal from the Law School or revocation of a degree. I understand that I have a continuing duty to disclose any changes in any of the facts indicated in this application after the filing of the application and through my graduation from this law school. Failure to do so may result in expulsion from the Law School or other appropriate action. (Your application will be returned to you if it is not signed.)
