COURSE OVERVIEW

Understanding of investigative techniques, including peer-to-peer, chat, traveler cases; interrogation of suspects; in depth treatment of search and seizure; and other pretrial motions.

AGENDA

8:00-8:15 Welcome & Introduction {divider #1}
Thomas K. Clancy

8:15-8:50 Digital Evidence Locations and Computer Forensics: part I {divider #2}
Don Mason

9:00-9:50 Digital Evidence Locations and Computer Forensics: part II {divider #2}
Don Mason

10:00-10:50 Overview of Technology-Facilitated Crimes Against Children {divider #3}
Priscilla Grantham

11:00-12:00 Fourth Amendment Applicability: Expectations of Privacy {divider #4}
Thomas K. Clancy

1:00-1:50 Fourth Amendment Applicability: Private Searches {divider #5}
Priscilla Grantham

2:00-2:50 Breakout Groups: Warrants for Digital Evidence

3:00-3:50 Fourth Amendment Satisfaction: Competing Views of the Nature of Digital Evidence Searches {divider #6}
Thomas K. Clancy
4:00-5:00  Typical Issues Related to Warrants Issuance
Priscilla Grantham

day #2

8:00-8:50  Warrantless Searches: Search Incident to Arrest, Inventory, and Probable Cause Based Vehicle Searches
Priscilla Grantham

9:00-9:50  Other Search and Seizure Satisfaction Issues, including Consent
Priscilla Grantham

10:00-10:50  Breakout Groups

11:00-12:00  Statements by Suspects / Entrapment
Thomas K. Clancy

1:00-1:50  Discovery, including of Child Pornography Images and Impact of Adam Walsh Act
Don Mason

2:00-2:50  Putting it all together: Legal Framework of Typical Investigations Involving Digital Evidence
Thomas K. Clancy

3:00-4:00  All Group Discussion:
Other pretrial motions, including
- motions in limine regarding sensitive materials
- courtroom closings
- other protective orders
- trauma concerns
Don Mason

4:00-4:15  Evaluations and Graduation

© copyright, National Center for Justice and the Rule of Law 2010.