NCJRL Student Opportunities

- Criminal Appeals Clinic - Third-year law students obtain “real-world” experience in state criminal appellate practice by writing briefs and arguing criminal cases before the appellate courts of Mississippi.

- Prosecution Externship Program – Students, through a specialized course and as externs with prosecutor offices throughout the nation, are immersed in the role and duties of prosecutors.

- Appellate Judicial Externship Program - Students spend a full semester as externs with the Mississippi Court of Appeals.

- Summer Jobs Initiative Program - This unique program places students as paid summer law clerks with prosecutor and policy offices across the nation. The Center funds the students’ salaries.

- Speaker series - Speakers with extensive theoretical and practical experience provide students insights on cutting edge criminal law issues.

- Criminal Law Conferences - Every year, the Center brings nationally recognized speakers to conferences at the law school on cyber crime and search and seizure. Students are encouraged to attend.

- Criminal Law Resources - The Center offers an on-line library of material, ranging from cyber crime to Fourth Amendment issues.

- Mentoring - The Center faculty has more than a century of criminal law experience as state and federal prosecutors, defense attorneys, and teachers, providing invaluable mentoring opportunities to students.
