POSITION DESCRIPTION

Graphic Designer II

Definition of Class
This is a non-supervisory professional position in which the incumbent assists in providing campus departments with high quality, professional design materials. Work involves organizing, creating, designing, and executing a variety of web-based and/or printed materials including view books, brochures, illustrations, catalogs, booklets, original web designs, e-newsletters, web magazines, etc.

Examples of Work Performed
Prepares University web-based and printed publications from conception to delivery of final product including view books, brochures, illustrations, catalogs, booklets, original web design, e-newsletters, web magazines, etc.

Interacts with clients to determine needs and technical requirements. Ensures publications are in accordance with clients’ requests, budgets, and deadline requirements.

Creates complete, comprehensive, and complex web and/or print designs using a variety of software.

Inspects and approves printers’ proofs; attends press checks on and off campus as necessary; and reviews completed products.

Creates original designs for assigned projects by determining information flow, content layout, use of graphics, typography, color, etc. based upon available space, knowledge of layout principles, and aesthetic design concepts.

Stays abreast of new techniques and technology related to web and/or print design.

Performs similar or related duties as assigned or required.

Essential Functions
These essential functions include, but are not limited to, the following. Additional essential functions may be identified and included by the hiring Department.

1. Prepares University web-based and/or printed publications from conception to delivery of final product.
2. Meets with clients to discuss publication needs.
3. Stays abreast of new techniques and technology related to web and/or print design.

Minimum Qualifications
These minimum qualifications have been agreed upon by Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) in this job class and are based upon a job analysis and the essential functions. However, if a candidate believes he/she is qualified for the job although he/she does not have the minimum qualifications set forth below, he/she may request special consideration through substitution of related education and experience, demonstrating the ability to perform the essential functions of the position. Any request to substitute related education or experience for minimum qualifications must be addressed to The University of Mississippi’s Department of Human Resources in writing, identifying the related education and experience which demonstrates the candidate’s ability to perform all essential functions of the position.

Physical Requirements: These physical requirements are not exhaustive, and additional job related physical requirements may be added to these by individual agencies on an as needed basis. Corrective devices may be used to meet physical requirements.

Physical Exertion: The incumbent may be required to lift up to approximately 20 pounds.

Vision: Requirements of this job include close vision and color vision.

Speaking/Hearing: Ability to give and receive information through speaking and listening.

Motor Coordination: While performing the duties of this job, the incumbent is periodically required to sit; stand; and walk. The incumbent is occasionally required to reach with hands and arms; and stoop, kneel, crouch or bend.

Experience/Educational Requirements:

Education:
Bachelor’s Degree in graphic design or a related field from an accredited four-year college or university.

AND

Experience:
Two (2) years of experience related to the above described duties.

AND

Licensure:
Incumbent must have a valid driver’s license within the first 3 months of employment. (Requirement for University Communications only)

Substitution Statement:
Related experience may be substituted for education, on a basis set forth and approved by the Department of Human Resources.

Interview Requirements
Any candidate who is called for an interview must notify the Department of Human Resources in writing of any reasonable accommodation needed prior to the date of the interview.

Rev. 04/01/2015

The University of Mississippi is an EOE/AA/Minorities/Females/Vet/Disability/Sexual Orientation/Gender Identity/Title VI/Title VII/Title IX/504/ADA/ADEA employer. The University complies with all applicable laws regarding equal opportunity and affirmative action and does not unlawfully discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment based upon race, color, gender, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, religion, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, or genetic information. The University of Mississippi is an “at will” employer. This job description does not constitute an employment contract or negate “at will” employment.