JOB DESCRIPTION

Executive Coordinator to the Chancellor

Definition of Class
This is a highly responsible support position in which the incumbent functions as the executive coordinator to the Chancellor and provides overall administrative support to the Chancellor and the Assistant to the Chancellor. The incumbent performs both administrative and secretarial duties and is given broad latitude within bounds set by sound office management practice. There is frequent contact with persons within and outside of the organization, which involves an exchange of information and requires considerable judgment. The incumbent receives direction from the Chancellor but is afforded the flexibility to utilize decision-making and communication skills. The incumbent must exercise a high degree of proficiency and discretion in the execution of administrative duties and in preparing confidential material for the Chancellor and the University.

Examples of Work Performed
Acts as liaison for the Chancellor with local officials, Board members, alumni, faculty, staff, students, parents, and the general public. Replies to inquiries of the public and assists those who have problems or complaints, or refers to appropriate offices.

Coordinates and maintains exacting calendar of appointments for the Chancellor, including interviewing callers and making appropriate referrals.

Makes all arrangements for the Chancellor's travel; maintains contact with the University pilot regarding continuous changes in the Chancellor's schedule, weather updates, and coordination of the use of the University plane; prepares statements for reimbursement to the Chancellor's Office for the use of the University plane and maintains record of checks received and deposits made; prepares detailed travel reimbursements and maintains a travel log of all travel by the Chancellor.

Composes, and edits correspondence and reports for the Chancellor's signature, some of which may be composed or compiled on the basis of personal knowledge of the subject matter.

Prepares personal and confidential documents for the Chancellor and the University.

Prepares payroll and maintains staff leave records for the Chancellor.

Assists the Assistant to the Chancellor in the supervision of staff and training of new employees, student workers, and part-time employees.

Communicates with University Standing Committees and monitors completion of required committee activities.

Performs related or similar duties as required or assigned.
