

Mississippi Philosophical Association
2007 Annual Meeting
April 13-14, 2007
The University of Southern Mississippi
Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Friday April 13
Liberal Arts Building, Room #101

7:00pm
Keynote Address
Clayton Sullivan
University of Southern Mississippi
"The Case for Resentment"

Saturday April 14
Thad Cochran Center, Room #214

8:30-9:00am
Light Breakfast

9:00-9:45am
Bryan Norwood
Mississippi State University
"Empiricism and Rationalism Resolved by Architecture?"
Student Essay Contest Winner

9:50-10:35am
Steven Skultety
University of Mississippi
"Aristotle's Competition Community"

10:40-11:25am
Mary Quin
Hinds Community College
"Propositions and Photographic Images"

11:30am-1:00pm
Lunch

1:00-1:15pm
Business Meeting

1:20-2:05pm
Steven Smith
Millsaps College
"Historical Meaningfulness"

2:10-2:55pm
Michael Horton and Kamper Floyd
University of Kentucky
"Content Externalism, Metaphysical Realism, and Truth"

3:00-3:45pm
Presidential Address
Neil Manson
University of Mississippi
"Environmental Philosophy: Some Fundamental Problems"

Directions

An online map of the campus is available at <http://www.usm.edu/parking/campusmap806.pdf>

The Liberal Arts Building (aka Arts and Letters) is #14 on the map, and is located at the corner of Pearl Street and 31st Ave.

The Thad Cochran Center is #32 on the map, and is located on Charles Lane, right beside the Barnes and Noble Campus Bookstore.

The University of Southern Mississippi is located at the corner of HWY 49 and Hardy Street in Hattiesburg, MS. For online driving directions, such as those available at mapquest.com, the official address of The University of Southern Mississippi is 118 College Drive, Hattiesburg, MS 39406

Parking on weekends should be readily available.

For more information please email Morgan Rempel at morgan.rempel@usm.edu