

58th Annual Meeting of the Mississippi Philosophical Association

Saturday, February 23, 2008
University of Memphis
Clement 435

- 9:00-9:50 Graduate Prize: "The Need for Natural Theology in the Life of the Theist"
Chuck Hodgins
Department of Philosophy, University of Mississippi
- 10:00-10:50 "Opposition or Interlocutor: New Possibilities for Contemporary Continental Philosophy of Religion"
J. Aaron Simmons
Department of Philosophy, Hendrix College
- 11:00-11:50 " 'Stop him!! He stole my internet connection!!': Hume, Hegel, and Dewey on the Historical Origins of Political Concepts"
Eric Weber
Department of Public Policy Leadership, University of Mississippi

11: 50-12:30 Official Business of the MPA

LUNCH BREAK

- 2:00-2:50 Graduate Prize: "The Success of Modal Fictionalism"
John Sylvia IV
Dept. of Philosophy and Religion, Univ. of Southern Mississippi
- 3:00-3:50 "Beauty, Play and the Meaning of Life"
Jim Shelton
Dept. of Philosophy and Religion, University of Central Arkansas
- 4:00-4:50 2008 MPA Presidential Address: "Dying at the Right Time"
Morgan Rempel
Dept. of Philosophy and Religion, Univ. of Southern Mississippi