

The Peasants are Revolting!

That's right, the peasants are revolting, and how!

Nasty, mud-grubbing, anarcho-syndicalist communards.... Throw off your glad rags for a day, and come join the Shire of Hammerhold as we return to

STAR MANGLED SPANNER:

PEASANTS REVOLT

NEW SITE!!

September 17, 18, and 19, 2004

Sleepy Bend Camp Site, Sardis Lake Park, Sardis, MS

Featuring: The return of Fred, the dead peasant, in the "Best use for a dead peasant" competition. Also, the "Best peasant costume Competition".

And of course, "Illiterate Scribes Scrolls competition."

Fighting, of course we have fighting, how could a peasant revolt without it?

The Peasant Weapon List: If a peasant could use it, so can you.

The Return of The Rolling Treasure Melee (we invented it, it's come home to roost.) Torchlight Dagger Duel Friday night (we supply the daggers).

NEW SITE!!
And
PRICE CHANGE

We will provide Breakfast, Lunch, and Supper on Saturday
Blueberry Muffins included

(how could it be Star Mangled Spanner without them?)

There is a swimming area, but there is no lifeguard on duty.

All this, and more, for only $9.00, whether you are camping or daytripping. Children 6-12 are half-price. Children under 6 are free. (Non-members fee of $3.00 added to all prices.) All those other usual rules apply. Your site fee includes the $5 camping fee.

This is a Mississippi State park which means it is a dry site.

AUTOCRAT: Maistreas Brigid Mhor inghean Mhuirchada, mka Anne M. Klingen
314 Deer Run N, Oxford, MS 38655 662-234-6632 brigid@pelican.sca.org cell phone that will be available on that weekend only 662-801-1324

FEASTCRAT: THL Kathryn of Lindsey, mka Lindsey McCollum 662-562-8905

This is a primitive, camping site.

DIRECTIONS: From the WEST and NORTH – Travel on I-55. At the Sardis, MS exit (Exit 252) turn east on MS Hwy. 315, travel approx. ten miles to the Lower Lake of Sardis Dam. Look for SCA signs for the Sleepy Bend Camp Site. The entrance to the campsite will be on the right. If you cross the spillway, you have gone too far. Turn around and head back.

From the SOUTH - Travel on I-55. At the 2nd Batesville, MS exit (Exit 246) Turn east on MS Hwy. 35, travel approx. eight miles to the Lower Lake of Sardis Dam. You will cross the spillway and travel around the lower part of the Dam. (approx. 1.5 miles) Look for SCA signs for the Sleepy Bend Camp Site, which is on the far side of the lower lake. The entrance to the campsite will be on the left.

From the EAST – Travel on Hwy 6 West toward Batesville, MS. Approx. 1.5 miles past the Panola County line, turn North (right turn) onto MS Hwy 315. {Crossroad's Grocery will be on the corner} You will travel approx. 5 miles to the Lower Lake of Sardis Dam. You will cross the spillway and travel around the lower part of the Dam. (approx. 1.5 miles) Look for SCA signs for the Sleepy Bend Camp Site, which is on the far side of the lower lake. The entrance to the campsite will be on the left.

For more information go to <http://www.olemiss.edu/orgs/sca/> or for information about the camp site go to <http://www.mvk.usace.army.mil/Lakes/sardislake/>